

2012 Wedding Brochure

Dear Sir/Madam,

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce you to Cockliffe Country House Hotel as the ideal venue for your wedding. Having sat secluded from the hustle and bustle of both Nottingham and Mansfield for over three hundred years, you may be surprised to discover this rustic idyll nestling peacefully, yet conveniently, between the A60 and A614. My wife Jane and I became enchanted with this secret hideaway fifteen years ago and have strived to combine our shared experience and Jane's flair for breathtaking style with cuisine and comfort in a beautiful backdrop.

Recently awarded our first rosette and four stars status by the AA, this enchanting seventeenth century house possesses the architectural facade of a French chateau with turreted-style corners and arched windows. Quite unique, the historic exterior of Cockliffe is complimented by the decadence one finds inside, with use of rich colours, heavy curtains, antiques and the skill of a local artist. It is important to us that our guests feel the warmth and intimacy of Cockliffe and that by enjoying exclusivity of the entire hotel it might become home from home. In creating this we seek to afford you your every desire, whatever scheme, theme or dream you may have in mind. Our Wedding Co-ordinator, Susan Lees, is well experienced in working closely with wedding couples and provides an excellent service, aspiring to materialise every caprice.

Cockliffe has eleven bedrooms, each with its own personality nurtured by Jane's eye for detail aiding the ambience of a boutique hotel. Each sumptuous bedroom boasts a mini-bar, en-suite Jacuzzi bath, luxury towel robes, complimentary toiletries and chocolates. Our principal bedrooms afford delightful views over the grounds and countryside. We are easily accessible by both road and rail and have a helicopter pad in the grounds.

Our team at Cockliffe is a strong and supportive one that recognises the importance and significance of your wedding and what part we will play in your unforgettable day. May we extend a warm invitation for you to browse through the enclosed literature at your leisure in which you will find further details about our wedding facilities. Should you wish to view the hotel and gain a more in-depth insight into Cockliffe, then our wedding coordinator Susan Lees or any one of our team would be delighted to show you round. Please do not hesitate to contact us either on telephone no; (0115) 9680179 or via e-mail at: enquiries@cockliffehouse.co.uk
We look forward to hearing from you.

Wedding booking

To secure a date for your wedding, a £2000 deposit is required. This is NON-REFUNDABLE in the event of a cancellation and we therefore suggest that you take out private wedding insurance.

A booking contract will be produced with our full terms and conditions for you to sign, upon receipt of the above; confirmation will be sent in writing to confirm your booking with us.

Wedding cancellation/Payment Policy

The £2,000 deposit made on booking is as stated non-refundable.

Weddings cancelled with a minimum 6 months notice of the event, will result in the deposit being forfeited.

Weddings cancelled with less than 6 months notice but more than 3 months notice of the event, 50% of the full amount will be charged.

Weddings cancelled with less than 3 months notice will result in the full amount being charged.

May we suggest you consider a private insurance to cover any event of cancellation?

The full amount to be settled 6 weeks before the event and all final numbers should be agreed at this time as those invoiced at 8 weeks will be charged for even if guests later cancel.

Please note that a 10% cover charge will be added on all food & beverages
